Hosting Thanksgiving this year?

Things to keep in mind

- Plan the right amount of food for the people you´re hosting.
- Make a very detailed grocery list.
- Don´t overthink the turkey. Making a turkey is not that hard.
- Just because your hosting doesn´t mean you need to do every single thing.
- Make as much ahead as possible.
- Thanksgiving is NOT the time to experiment with new recipes.
- It´s fine to buy parts of your meal.
- Enjoy the night, embrace the holiday!

Quote of the month:

“We are all alone, born alone, die alone, and—in spite of True Romance magazines—we shall all someday look back on our lives and see that, in spite of our company, we were alone the whole way. I do not say lonely- at least, not all the time—but essentially, and finally, alone. This is what makes you self-respect so important, and I don´t see how you can respect yourself if you mist loon in the hearts and minds of others for your happiness.”

Hunter S. Thompson, The proud Highway: Saga of a Desperate Southern Gentleman, 1955-1967
